Declaration

By submitting this written request, I release the PATHORA Institute for Pathology and Tissue Medicine from the standard data protection requirements and the resulting liability obligations and instruct PATHORA to transmit my pathology reports electronically. I am aware that the data may potentially be viewed by unauthorized third parties during transmission.

With my signature, I confirm that for the selected method of transmission:

- Receipt of reports is handled confidentially, and the receiving devices (e.g. fax machine, PC, IT server) are located in a secure area inaccessible to third parties.
- Only authorized persons who are bound by confidentiality have access to the receiving devices and may view anatomical pathology and/or molecular pathology reports.

This declaration remains valid for the duration of our cooperation until revoked in writing.
